November 24, 2022 Articles 1 and 6 amended and passed by the General Education Committee at its 140th meeting

- Article 1 National Taiwan University (NTU)'s Division of Liberal Education ("the Division") of the Center for General Education ("the Center") establishes a Curriculum Committee ("the Committee") responsible for conducting curriculum reviews and evaluations in accordance with Article 2 of the NTU Directives for Establishing Curriculum Committees.
- Article 2 The Committee shall consist of the Division Director as the Committee convener, conveners of liberal education's eight core areas, and a student representative selected by NTU Student Association Resolutions. The attendance of relevant persons may be required if necessary.
- Article 3 Resolutions of the Committee may be made through e-mail or by electronic means.
- Article 4 The responsibilities of the Committee are as follows:
1. Planning and structuring of NTU's general and liberal education (GLE) curricula.
 2. Reviewing of the Division's curriculum design and changes.
 3. Coordination, integration and improvement of other matters regarding the curriculum or teaching offered by the Division.
- Article 5 The quorum for a Committee meeting shall be at least half the members of the Committee; a resolution shall only be passed by a majority vote of the members present.
- Article 6 The Division of Liberal Education Directives for Establishing the Curriculum Committee shall be passed by the Center Affairs Meeting and then implemented on the date of promulgation
